NEW YORK CITY, August 24, 1912.

Warden,
Federal Prison,
Atlanta, Ga.

Dear Sir:

1 You have under your charge at Atlanta a prisoner by the name of G. Morello. Will you kindly find out from him what has become of the corporation of "The Ignatz Florio Co-Operative Association," of which he was president up to 1907.

2 I should like to know why the property situated at 512 and 516 East 80th street, which this company owned, was turned over to one of the stockholders and nothing given to the rest. There are about 150 stockholders in this company and they are desirous of knowing why this one was given preference. This company also owned eight more houses and the stockholders would like to know what has been done with these. The stockholders in this company are all poor and hard working people who have invested all their earnings in this company.

Thanking you in advance for the information, I am,

Yours very truly,

Caroline Altieri

IN RE GIUSEPPE MORELLO, REGISTER #2882.

Dear Sir: Complying with request contained in your letter of the 24th instant to ascertain from the above-named prisoner what has become of the corporation "The Ignatz Florio Co-Operative Association," of which he was president, and why the property situated at #512 and #516 East 80th Street was turned over to one of the stockholders and nothing given to the rest, I advise you that this prisoner says that "The Ignatz Florio Co-Operative Association" does not now exist and that he knows nothing of this property.

Very respectfully,

Warden.

William H. Moyer, Esq.,
Warden, United States penitentiary,
Atlanta, Ga.

Dear Sir:

Replying to your favor of the 27th inst. I beg to say that in as much as G. Morello was president of "The Ignatz Florio Co-Operative Association" at the time of his arrest, and as far as the majority of the stockholders know, he still continues to be its president, he certainly must know something about this property. Perhaps he can tell what has become of the other pieces of property situate at East 137th street and East 138th street, this city.

Would it be too much to ask you to again question him in regard to this matter as I should think, he, as the president of said corporation, would be likely to know about these matters.

Thanking you in advance, I remain,

Yours very truly,
