Dear Brother;-

With these few lines r let you know of our god health and the same hope to hear from you. The work due for you is splendid and with assurance. The only thing left is the leave of our cousin.
You know dear brother, that with this cursed war no one can find out when it will be, I am sure you know the faith of the Lusitania that many poor unfortunates lost their life, and therefore we are waiting from day to day. Many kisses from your wife and children Mother and family,

Your brother Coco.

We are in the year 1915, the year unexpected with Europe in Mourning, but lets hope that all will not be in vain, after dark comes light, after the clouds comes sunshine, from day to day there are obstacles, but I hope that they will soon dissappear, Life is a Fatality, and it is like a bout that sails drifffin, with the wind till the latter ceace.

Receive many embraces from your wife and children, I embrace you with esteem, .

My dear Giuseppe:-

Yesterday we received your dear letter, addressed to our adored Daughter Angelina, and I hear that you complain about my news. Listen Giuseppe, I am somewhat convinced that you do not care for me, because I can see that you are not as you was at one time. First I pay attention to your way of writing, and I don't know that it may be the fault of the party whom writes the letters for you, that he may not be able to explain well, as I see other letters that other wives see that they are different than mine, but this is my fortune, say nothing about this postal, Kisses,

We here all well in health, and the same hope in God that it will find you also. Joseph of my heart; Coco' went to see Uncle to inform himself about the sailing of my loving Cousin, and Uncle told him that he has good hopes and his coming is expected soon. You cannot imagine the gladness of our children and myself as we are waiting for his coming. You have no imagination as to interest of John, so as he may also embrace our cousin.
