My always adored Giuseppe:-

We here are all well in health, and I hope that the present will also find you the same. Giuseppe of my heart; I let you know that this morning we received your so loved letter, and contents noted.

Giuseppe adored of my heart, You say that I do not write to you often, if this is true I beg your pardon adored Giuseppe, but I do not mean to forget you, the reason is that, Coco' sees the lawyer daily and the good hopes makes us waiting from day to day for the consolated news, and therefore I say, I will wait till to-morrow and write to him, maybe I will be able to give him some very good news, and the day passes and I neglect you indirect, but I swear hereafter I will write you oftener.

Kisses, from, your wife,

LINA MORELLO.

My so much adored Giuseppe;-

This morning we received your dear letter, and was very glad in learning of your good health, the same I assure you of us all. Giuseppe of my heart;- I noted in your letter that I am forgetting my duty, Oh! My Joe, this word you should have not said it, not even given a thought, because I will never forget my duty one hundred years after I am dead. The reason I sometime write you with ritard, is that I wait for good news from moment to moment, of which we are looking forward very anxiously. I will promise you that this will never happen again.. I received two pictures you sented. Many kisses from the heart, I am,

Dear Compeer:-
I let you know that I am well, the same I assure you of your family, and I hope that these few lines will also find you well. Dear Compeer, I let you know that on the 5th of April I was to our Mr. Cottley, and if you could have heard what he told me, I am sure you would give out a banquet, because he said that between two or three days, the time would be well accomodated, and that the time was never so fine as it is presently.
The latest it would be April the 15th. Excuse me for not having written you before this.

Your compeer,

TONY RUSSO.
