Yesterday I received your discouraging letter, and I did not answer at once, because I was waiting for Coco arrive, and this morning he came at the house at 8 A.M. You have no idea of the gladness of our children in seeing Coco as they went to him and embraces him as soon as he steps in from the door.

They asked him how their father was, and he said that Papa sent them many kisses, and they remained content, we were happy to learn that your state of health is good, but we were discontent in learning that you are discouraged. Kisses,

Your wife,
