N.Y. June 26th, 1916.

Joseph of my heart;-

We are all well and hope in God that the present will find you the same. My Joseph; I let you know that Tanino Lupo came to see me yesterday, he calls every Sunday home asking for your news, and every time he brings something to the children, and wishes to read always your letters.

I beg you dear Joe, to write a few lines in your letter saying something about him, and thank him for what he does. With kisses from the children and myself, I am,

Your wife,

LINA MORELLO.

Joseph:-

2 days ago Coco' received your letter, and to tell you the truth I remained somewhat surprise in listening to your letter, specially that you are trying to forget the family, but my feelings have been hurt, you are acting ungrateful.

I have shed tears for two days, thinking of your treatment without cause. I thought of stoping writing to you, because my letters bring you disturb, on second thought I decided to drop you these few lines, asking you wheather you care for me to continue to write or not.

I am, your wife,
LINA MORELLO.

Joseph;-

with this postal I come to let you know that we are all well and trust in God that the present will also find you the same. Yesterday Compeer Tony Rusco called the lawyer on the phone, I was present, and he told him that I was there and wished to speak to him, so owing to the fact that I cannot speak English I had Rosa speak for me, and the lawyer said "Mrs. Be content and do not worry, because things are very good, and I hope to give you very good news in the near future. I there fore beg you to write a few lines in your letter in behalf of our Compeer, thanking him for his kindness. With kisses from me and children, I am,

Your wife,

LINA MORELLO.
